

Hawaii Self-Advocacy Advisory Council (SAAC) Network - Year 1 (2013)

Why build the Network?

To build a strong foundation for Hawaii SAAC so we can be the voice for others.

What will the Network do for SAAC members?

1. Members can learn to be a voice for themselves and others.
2. Members will be stronger leaders.
3. Help increase membership so we can be stronger.
4. Support independence and advocacy.

Hawaii SAAC Network

Why is advocacy important?

1. Speak up for yourself.
2. Speak up for others.
3. Tell people what you want.
4. Get the help you need.

Advocacy can help you:

1. Understand what people are saying so you can make the right choice in life.
2. Tell people how you feel and what you want
3. Teach others to learn to speak up for themselves.

What skills do I need to have?

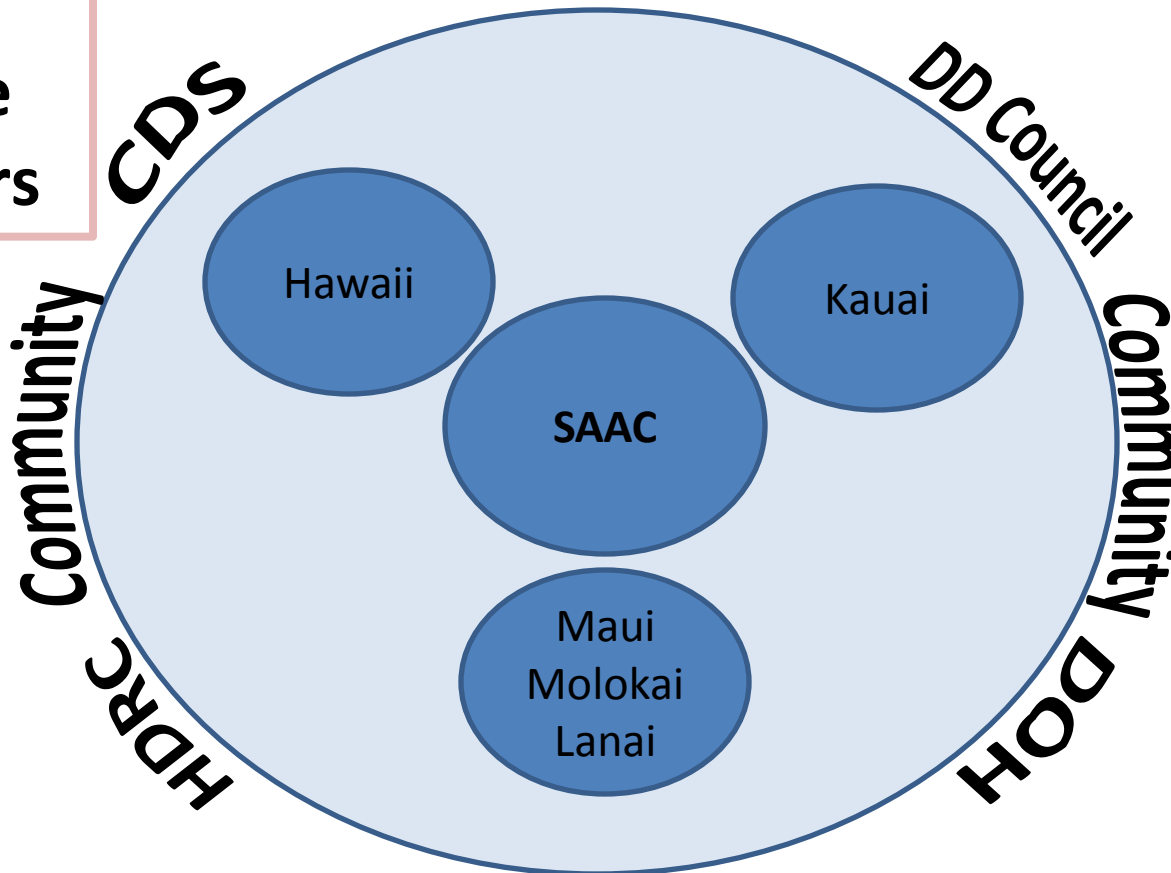

1. Independence
2. Decision-making
3. Speaking up
4. Leadership
5. Making Choices

Hawaii SAAC Network

Why build the Network?

To build a strong foundation for Hawaii SAAC so we can be the voice for others.

Our Future
Partners

CDS – Center on Disability Studies

HDRC – Hawaii Disability Rights Center

DD Council – Hawaii State Council on Developmental Disabilities

DOH – Department of Health

Hawaii SAAC Network

What is the Foundation for the Network?

Building Our House

Speak up for yourself

Build leadership

Build Membership

Support Independence, Decision-making, Choice

SAAC

Our Future

Advocacy

Respect

A Voice

Our Foundation - Membership