

National Association of Councils on Developmental Disabilities

A World of Opportunities

July 24-26, 2024, Washington DC

Showcase Your Brand & Show Your Corporate Leadership

Meet 250+ Advocates Leading NACDD's 56 State & Territorial DD Councils

What to Expect

- Be part of an energetic, diverse, and inspiring gathering of 250+ disability advocates – including people with intellectual and developmental disabilities (I/DD), their families, and professionals
- Learn more about key issues that impact the lives of people with I/DD

Who You Will Meet

- People with intellectual and developmental disabilities, including self-advocates working on issues impacting the greater good, families, community leaders, service providers, and professionals.
- Leaders who are passionately guiding their communities with respect to the rights, responsibilities, systems, and opportunities that enable people with I/DD to live fulfilling lives.

What You Will Gain by Being a Sponsor

- Understanding issues that are important to your employees, customers, and community.
- Reaching people who can benefit from your products, services, employment, and civic leadership.
- Collecting information, ideas, and contacts to help your company expand and deepen its impact.
- Developing insight on ways to partner with NACDD to meet your business goals.
- Demonstrating your commitment to helping people with I/DD succeed in their communities.
